FOR RELEASE: AMs Monday, January 30, 1967

Congressman Charles W. Whalen, Jr. will plunge into a heavy schedule of House Armed Services Committee <sup>(CWW)</sup> meetings beginning Tuesday, January 31.

Assigned to the committee last week, Whalen will attend its organizational meeting at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

On Wednesday, Whalen and the other 39 members of the committee will begin considering a $4.4 billion supplemental military appropriations request.

Witnesses testifying on the supplemental will include Defense Secretary Robert McNamara and General Earle Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

After those hearings are completed, the annual military posture hearings, including the nation's top military leaders, will begin and are expected to last for about three weeks.
